

Worship Report Year Beginning to 10 November 2024

Greetings to all from the worship coordinator, Craig Strydom. Services at Bryanston Methodist Church has remained steady and consistent. All services have been streamed and maintained a steady schedule from the various streams of worship ministry.

All services were run for the year to date with the 9am and 11am services being streamed. The 11am choir has been able to serve every week and the 7am as well as the 9am service has been alternating between live music and music videos.

Every week this year has been consistent in all services in regard to checklists and following the safety protocols in place.

There has been 1 worship experience this year on the 24th of March with an attendance of 60

Highlights

The 7am service has kept a steady schedule of alternating between live music and music videos attendance has stayed steady to date.

The 11am choir has maintained and provided a good worship experience for the congregation, with the attendance at this service consistently being the highest.

Lowlights

The 9am Worship team has been struggling all year, we have been short of musicians for the 9am services and have only had one instrument for the services on multiple occasions. In the latter end of the year we have been able to use video worship much less and consistently have a worship team on Sundays.
